

A Service of AICCCA Association of Independent Consumer
Credit Counseling Agencies

Enrollment in Student Loan Programs

The final segment of our Student Loan Certification Program will train counselors on the various application processes necessary for enrollment in a number of federal student loan programs. Depending on the program, borrowers may be able to enroll over the phone, via a traditional paper application, or online. Upon completing our Student Loan Certification Program, counselors will be able to guide borrowers through the often complex and overwhelming enrollment process for the major federal loan programs.