

Melissa Pearson

Melissa Pearson was born and raised in the Boise area and has proudly called Idaho home throughout her life. Melissa has been active in the debt management community for over 17 years. As Director of Compliance, for Debt Reduction Services, a nonprofit credit counseling agency and AICCCA Member, she interacts with local, state and federal regulatory bodies nationwide. She also actively participates in many legislative efforts as well as working with committees and forums across the industry. Melissa travels often in her role as Director of Compliance with DRS. Ms. Pearson is an outspoken advocate for human rights and a firm proponent of equality. Melissa is a staunch believer in a robust program of compliance; however, does not believe that agencies should be inhibited by aggressive regulations that could impact consumer ability to obtain needed programs and services.
